

CONSERVATIVES ADDRESS PENSIONERS' WORRIES

WAVENEY CONSERVATIVES are just completing their survey of pensioners, asking for their views on a variety of issues.

Peter Aldous, the Conservative Parliamentary Candidate for Waveney, commented: 'The main issue which has come out of the survey is the overwhelming demand for the reinstatement of the link with earnings. This is a commitment that I'm pleased that we have made.'

Many people also said that they were concerned about how they would provide for themselves when they were no longer independent.

Peter said: 'A lot of people who have worked and saved hard are very worried that they'll be forced to sell their home to pay for long-term residential care. It is very good news that we are addressing this with our Home Protection Scheme, which will enable people to take out insurance to pay for their residential care and still be able to leave their home to their families.'

CLEANING BEACHES AND PLAY AREAS

IN RECENT WEEKS, Waveney Conservatives have helped to tidy up and clean Pakefield and Kessingland beaches and the play area on Rider Haggard Lane in Kessingland.

The beach clean in Pakefield was part of the Marine Conservation Society's Beachwatch Weekend 2009.

Peter Aldous said: 'We have picked up a wide variety of rubbish, including parts of bikes and scooters – and even the remains of a kitchen floor. The work was rewarding, although there is a need for everyone to take home their litter, rather than leaving it on the beach and in play areas spoiling the enjoyment of others.'

If there is an area near you in need of cleaning or a wall where graffiti should be removed, let Peter know on 07771 791513.

PETER ALDOUS' REPORT ON THE CHANGE WE NEED IN WAVENEY

READY FOR CHANGE

“ I won't promise things I cannot deliver.
But I can look you in the eye and tell you that in a Conservative Britain:

If you put in the effort to bring in a wage, you will be better off.

If you save money your whole life, you'll be rewarded.

If you start your own business, we'll be right behind you.

If you want to raise a family, we'll support you.

If you're frightened, we'll protect you.

If you risk your safety to stop a crime, we'll stand by you.

If you risk your life to fight for your country, we will honour you.

Ask me what a Conservative Government stands for and the answer is this: we will reward those who take responsibility, and care for those who can't.
